Children’s Sermon “Being Lazy” Rev. Jessica Asbell Oravec

Scripture Reading Proverbs 26:12-16 Dr. Doyle Hamilton

“Do you see a person wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for them.”

A sluggard says, “There’s a lion in the road, a fierce lion roaming the streets!” As a door turns on its hinges, so a sluggard turns on his bed. A sluggard buries his hand in the dish; he is too lazy to bring it back to his mouth. A sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven people who answer discreetly.

Choral Anthem “Lay up Your Treasures in Heaven” Chorale Choir, Wes Blalock, Soloist

"Lay up your treasures in heaven, O people, lay up your treasures in glory where nothing in this world can take them away." O listen, people, hear the Master say, "Lay up your treasures in heaven, O people, lay up your treasures in glory. Your treasures in this world will fade away, but the things of the Lord will last forevermore!"

Well, the Lord looked out and saw the people there, tied up in worry and burdened with care. He said, “Seek first the kingdom and you will see the things that will last for eternity!”

Some people trust in their silver and gold, they put their faith in the wealth they hold. But fortunes will fade and kingdoms fail, so put your trust in the Lord of all!

Sermon “Giving Up Sloth” Dr. Kevin Head Matthew 25:14-30

“Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his wealth to them. To one he gave five bags of gold, to another two bags, and to another one bag, each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey. The man who had received five bags of gold went at once and put his money to work and gained five bags more. So also, the one with two bags of gold gained two more. But the man who had received one bag went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money. After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. The man who had received five bags of gold brought the other five. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘you entrusted me with five bags of gold. See, I have gained five more.’”

“His master replied, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness!’ The man with two bags of gold also came. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘you entrusted me with two bags of gold; see, I have gained two more.’”

“His master replied, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness!’ Then the man who had received one bag of gold came. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. So I was afraid and went out and hid your gold in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.’”

“His master replied, ‘You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.’”

“So take the bag of gold from him and give it to the one who has ten bags. For whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them.”

And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Response “Take My Life and Let It Be Consecrated” (597) HENDON

Response “The Lord’s Prayer” (631) MALOTTE

“For Thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Postlude “O God Our Help in Ages Past” PETHEL

Narthex Display On this second Sunday of Lent, we see Christ on His journey leading up to the crucifixion. Beginning with Him praying to His Father in agony, we then see Him being arrested. As the journey continues, we see Him on trial before Pontius Pilate, and finally, we see Him as Pilate orders Him to be scourged, beaten and mocked before He is sentenced to be crucified.
